

Seminar IVIG 2010

Information education and information literacy in theory and practice of educational institutions

held by Association of Libraries of Czech Universities, Institute of Information Studies and Librarianship of the Charles University in Prague, and SPRIG Civic Association

Prague, September 23, 2010, Charles University in Prague

Theme: New technologies in information education?

The seminar language is Czech.

Program

9.30 – 10.00 Registration

10.00 - 12.30 Morning block

- Opening speech
Ludmila Tichá, Czech Technical University in Prague
- From learning to teaching: influence of ICT on educational (learning) process
Jakub Štogr, Charles University in Prague
- Using Second Life as a learning environment ***
Sheila Weber, University of Sheffield

Coffee break

- Results of the survey on new technologies' using in information education
Zdeňka Civínová, Czech Technical University in Prague
- Technologies and tools appropriate for information education
Olga Biernátová, Tomas Bata University in Zlín

12.30 – 13.00 Lunch break

13.00 - 16.00 Afternoon block

- Discussion. Moderated by Petr Očko, SPRIG (Information Literacy Development Association)
- Workshop. Coordinated by Petra Hornočová, Charles University in Prague
- Closing the seminar

 Note: The lecture will be interpreted into Czech.*