

Seminar IVIG 2011:
Information education and information literacy in the theory and practice of educational institutions

„New topics in information education“

Date: September 22nd, 2011 (10:00–16:00)

Location: Auditorium, Charles University, Prague

Organized by: Association of Libraries of Czech Universities & Institute of Information Studies and Librarianship, Charles University & SPRIG

---

PROGRAM

9:30 – 10:00 Registration

Morning Session:

10:00 Opening word: Anna Stöcklová (Charles University), Michaela Dombrovská (SPRIG), Hana Landová (IVIG ALCU)

10:15 Transliteracy: a trendy word or a real new perspective for information training? (Alexandre Serres, URFIST, France)

11:15 – 11:30 Coffee Break

11:30 Open access, open science, promotion, education of doctoral students and researchers (Lenka Němečková & Věra Pilecká, Czech Technical University)

11:45 Geocaching in the libraries (Iva Zdražilová, Masaryk University)

12:00 Cooperation within the professional community: finding and networking of new areas, topics and colleagues (Jan Zikuška, Masaryk University)

12:15 Creativity in the education (Dagmar Chytková, Masaryk University)

12:30 – 13:00 Lunch Break

Afternoon Session:

13:00 Panel discussion „New topics in the information education“
Participants: Tereza Matýsová, Jiří Kratochvíl, Veronika Peslerová, Jan Zikuška
Moderator: Michaela Dombrovská

14:00 Workshop / choice of two topics: Open Access or Geocaching /
Facilitators: Petra Hornochová & Jakub Hájek

15:30 Wrap-up