

Seminar IVIG 2012:
Information education and information literacy in the theory and practice of educational institutions

“Evaluation of information education effectiveness: do we know, if students have learned something?”

Date: September 20th, 2012 (10 am – 4 pm)

Location: Auditorium Jinonice, Charles University, Prague

Organized by: Association of Libraries of Czech Universities & Institute of Information
Studies and Librarianship, Charles University & SPRIG

PROGRAM

10.00 –Opening word

10.15 Adults education evaluation methods,
Ondřej Bárta, Masaryk University, Faculty of Education

11.00 Coffee break

11.15 Measurement of impact of information education in Masaryk University Campus
Library courses on students and postgraduate students of Medical Faculty,
Jiří Kratochvíl, Masaryk University Campus Library

11.45 Experiences in efficient evaluation of electronic education methods of medical librarians in the Czech Republic,
Adéla Jarolímková, Eva Lesenková, National Medical Library

12.30 Lunch break

13.15 Moderated discussion,
Michaela Dombrovská, Charles University, Faculty of Arts

14.15 Workshop „Try it yourself“,
Petra Hornochová, Metropolitan University Prague,

15.45 Wrap-up