

Seminar IVIG 2009

Information education and information literacy in theory and practice of educational institutions

held by Association of Libraries of Czech Universities, Institute of Information Studies and Librarianship of the Charles University in Prague, and SPRIG Civic Association

Prague, September 24, 2009, Charles University in Prague

Topic: E-learning in information education

Program

9.30 – 10.00 Registration

10.00 - 13.00 Morning session:

- Opening speech of organisers
- E-learning standards in academic practice – e-sgh lectures in Warsaw School of Economics (SGH) Poland (Katarzyna Witek, Warsaw School of Economics)
- Trends, visions and experiments in classes: virtual environment, games, web 2.0 and the role of social networks in the process of knowledge transfer (Jakub Štogr, Charles University in Prague)

Coffee break

- From NotTrainers to NetTrainers: how we learned to swim in deep waters of e-learning (Blanka Jankovská, University of Pardubice)
- Third year with e-learning in the library – we always have something to teach/learn (Jan Zikuška, University of Technology in Brno)
- Experience with e-learning information literacy courses at the Faculty of Science and Faculty of Medicine of Masaryk University (Jiří Kratochvíl, Masaryk University, Brno)

Lunch break

13.30 - 16.00 Afternoon session - workshop

- We all and Moodle (Facilitators: Blanka Jankovská and Jan Zikuška)
- Closing remarks