

Seminar IVIG 2018

Information education and information literacy in theory and practice of educational institutions

Prague, September 6th 2018, Faculty of Arts, Charles University in Prague

Held by the Association of Libraries of Czech Universities and the Institute of Information Studies and Librarianship of the Charles University in Prague

“Learning how to teach”

Program

- | | |
|----------------------|--|
| 9:30 – 10:00 | Registration |
| 10:00 – 10:15 | Introductions: Lenka Bělohoubková, University of Economics |
| 10:15 – 11:15 | Keynote - Reflexion and self-reflexion in classes: how to learn from our self and from the others: Helena Ferklová (Charles University) |
| 11:15 – 11:45 | Involving students in classes, peer-to-peer method from the teacher point of view: Marek Picha (Masaryk University) |
| 11:45 – 12:15 | Best practices from home and abroad, activating methods in classes, lector preparing: Alexandra Vančurová (Charles University), Michaela Morysková (Czech Technical University) |
| 12:15 – 13:15 | Lunch |
| 13:15 – 14:15 | Coping with stress – how to survive presentation / classes: Petra Rohlíková (University of Life Sciences) |
| 14:15 – 14:25 | Coffee break |
| 14:25 – 15:40 | Workshop: Feedback from students – exchange of experiences: Kristýna Paulová (ČZU) |
| 15:40 – 16:00 | Closing session |

Presentations: <http://akvs.cz/akce/akce-2018/seminar-ivig-2018/>