Evidence Based Acquisition

A new, lower cost way to gain access to two centuries of landmark scholarship

251 journals, including content from 1791 to 1995

The Oxford Journals Archive enables your researchers to explore changes in academic thought over more than two centuries, placing present knowledge in context. By discovering how their own field has changed – and in some cases, began – the scholars of today can re-evaluate, reshape, and develop their own field for years to come.

Evidence Based Acquisition (EBA) is available for the entire Oxford Journals Archive, which features high quality journals in the areas of:

The Oxford Journals Archive features over 260 Nobel Prize-winning authors, and includes over 40,000 issues, and over 1,000,000 articles.

How does EBA work?

STEP 1

We will share customized pricing for the collection for your institution. Once you've made your deposit, your EBA access period begins.

STEP 2

Enjoy access to the 2019 Oxford Journals Archive for twelve months.

STEP 3

At the end of the twelve-month access period, we will provide you with COUNTER-compliant usage data, and you decide which titles to purchase. These titles then form part of your permanent collection.

What does EBA mean for my library?

EBA means your patrons will have access to nearly seven million pages of high quality, high impact scholarship, plus our usage reports will help your library make data-driven decisions regarding which journal archives to purchase.

Why might EBA be a good fit for my library?

EBA is a useful model for libraries seeking to make purchase decisions based on the evidence of demand, while providing their researchers with access to valuable, high quality content.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q How much does it cost?

- ▶ The EBA deposit is based upon the size of your institution. At the conclusion of the EBA access period, the full amount of the deposit will be applied towards title-by-title (TBT) selections using our standard TBT pricing. Please contact your Sales Representative/ Account Manager for more information.

Q Are there any program fees?

- ▶ No, there are no program fees associated with your purchase. We do not keep any administrative fees. All the money that you invest into these journals is used towards your purchase.

Q How quickly can EBA access be set up?

- ▶ We will enable access to your chosen archive journals a few days after your commitment has been made. A start date may also be specified if this is more convenient.

Q How can I access information about titles for our library catalogue?

- ▶ Your Sales Representative/Account Manager will provide you with a list of the journals in your EBA purchase. Additionally, MARC records and KBART files are available from our Librarian Resource Centre: academic.oup.com/journals/librarians

Q How do we choose titles at the end of the period?

- ▶ At the end of the access period, Oxford University Press will provide your library with a comprehensive, COUNTER-compliant usage report. Based upon evidence of use, you decide which titles to apply the deposit towards.

Q What usage data does OUP provide?

- ▶ OUP provides COUNTER 5 compliant usage statistics that show usage by title as well as by year of publication.

Q Can we buy additional titles at the end of the twelve-month trial period?

- ▶ Yes, if you wish to purchase titles greater in value than the initial EBA deposit, you are welcome to do so and pay the difference. The titles purchased at this time will become part of your permanent collection.

Q How can we ensure that our journals have usage?

- ▶ We believe that your library users will want to use the wide range of journals available through your EBA purchase. We have a variety of tools and resources on our Librarian Resource Centre to help promote usage. If additional support is needed, please email library.marketing@oup.com.
